

GMVN Guest House - Ghangaria, India

Hotel Sunbeam

Basic Lodging At Ghangaria

About GMVN Ghangaria

GMVN is a Govt of Uttarakhand enterprise offering basic lodging and accommodation at remote locations in the Himalayas.

GMVN Ghangaria is an excellent option to stay in Ghangaria, it offers 6 rooms as well as dormitories. The dormitory has about 12 double decker beds. It is a well maintained complex and rooms are provided with clean bed sheets.

It is better to book rooms well in advance for the summer season due to heavy rush of pilgrims. Rooms normally gets booked at least 45 days in advance.

View Of Hemkund Range From Ghangaria

Ghangaria is a small village on the way to Hemkund Sahib a popular pilgrimage site for Sikhs about 6 km away and the Valley Of Flowers, a national park known for its variety of flowers about 3 km from the village. It is located in the northern Himalayan ranges at an altitude of 3049 meters.

Ghangaria is situated on the bank of the river Lakshman Ganga. It is the last human habitation in this tiny valley. This place is usually used by travelers as a base camp to visit Hemkund and Valley Of Flowers. It is only accessible from May till September. The rest of the year the valley is covered under 8 feet of snow.

Ghangaria can be reached after a 13 km trek from Govindghat. One can also hire a porter or mule to avoid this strenuous trekking. There is no clear road, only a path made of rocks. Ghangaria has various hotels including the GMVN (Garhwal Mandal Vikas Nigam), restaurants serving Punjabi dishes, shops, camping grounds and a big Gurdwara to accommodate all the pilgrims. Only satellite telephone service is available, with only one outgoing call allowed for the entire village at any given time.

The Valley Of Flowers