The Tea Lounge

Fine Dining

The Silver Restaurant serves sumptuous multi cuisine food and can seat one hundred guests. Replete with candle light dinners and tunes from the piano, it can make any evening special. The Oak Bar offers the choicest of cocktails and snacks while the well stocked library is the ideal place to spend a quiet evening.

Service is personalized and available round the clock. High tea with cakes and cookies is served in the tea lounge or in the garden. Replete with candle light dinners and tunes from the piano, the multi cuisine restaurant can make any evening memorable. The Oak Bar offers the choicest of cocktails and snacks and you can also lose yourself in our well-stocked library in the evenings.

Facilities

The hotel offers conference/banquet facilities in a well-equipped hall. Other facilities available at the hotel include currency exchange, safe deposit lockers, baby sitting arrangements, travel desk, doctor on call, fax and e-mail facility and round the clock room service.

The Silver Oaks is reminiscent of the British Raj with chamber maids in frilled checked Aprons, the hot water bags in your bed and the bed tea served with tea cozies and cookies. The teak, oak floorboards and watercolours and lithographs by the masters reflect the opulence of the old times.

Lounging in the landscaped gardens in a profusion of colour, one is treated to breathtaking views. The natural décor is characteristic in the imposing Kanchenjunga which can be seen on a clear day. The garden is full of blooming petunias and asters, the serrated violet edges of iris, iridescent butterflies flitting through colourful azaleas, drooping geraniums and proud orchids.

The Sitting Room

The Silver Restaurant

Travelers will find Kalimpong quieter and friendlier than Darjeeling. Perched on a ridge just south of Sikkim and 50km east of Darjeeling, the town boasts fantastic views over neighbouring valleys and the Himalayas. The jeep ride from Darjeeling is truly spectacular as you pass through endless tea fields and under brightly coloured prayer flags. Mt Kanchenjunga is never far out of sight.

Interesting places to visit include Gauripur House, the home of the great Bengali poet Ravindra Nath Tagore. Religious sites include the Catholic church and Zong Dhog Palri Fo Brang Monastery which, after a pleasant 2 km walk from town commands wonderful views of Kalimpong and the mountains.

Deolo Hill the highest point in Kalimpong is a picnic spot with spectacular vistas of the Kanchenjunga massif.
