Day 02 – Agra

Dawn On The River Yamuna At Agra

Private Guided Tour Of The Agra Red Fort

People sometimes forget that Agra contains more than the Taj Mahal. The 16th Century Mughal monument known as the Red Fort Of Agra was built by Akbar the Great (1556-1605) and was a walled palace that remained India's premier city for almost two centuries.

The powerful fortress of red sandstone encompasses within its 1.5 mile-long enclosure walls many fairytale palaces such as the Jahangir Palace and the Khas Mahal, audience halls such as the Diwan-i-Khas, and Sheesh Mahal (The Glass Palace) which is inlaid with thousands of mirrors and was once the harem's dressing room.

Day 03 – Jaipur

The Taj Mahal At Sunrise

The Amazing Beauty Of The Taj Mahal

The Taj Mahal is the world's greatest monument to love. Set overlooking the River Yamuna, the Taj was built by Emperor Shah Jahan to enshrine the body of his favourite wife in 1631. To truly appreciate the wondrous Taj Mahal and its many moods, you should aim to visit it at dawn or dusk when the reflection of the sun changes the colour of the dome from white to shades of pink.

Day 04 – Jaipur

The Beautiful Jal Mahal Palace At Jaipur

Private Guided Tour Of The Jaipur City Palace

The old Pink City of Jaipur has a stunning backdrop of ancient forts like Amber that stand as dramatic testimonials of a bygone era and a reminder of their lingering romance. The magnificent City Palace was built by Maharaja Jai Singh in 1728, enclosed by high walls and set amidst fine gardens and courtyards. It is now a vast museum with exhibits that have lost none of their splendour. The Jantar Mantar Observatory is a fascinating astronomical observatory with massive instruments used to predict the monsoon and identify the movements of the stars.

The Palace Of The Winds (Hawa Mahal) is Jaipur's most acclaimed attraction. Built in 1799, overlooking one of the city's main streets to offer the women of the court a vantage point, behind stone-carved screens, from which to watch the activity in the bazaars below.

A Rajasthani Cultural Evening At Chokhi Dhani

An ethnic village resort spread over 10 beautifully landscaped acres, this cultural village is dotted with stages and platforms where a village fair is created every evening as an ongoing celebration of the rich and vibrant cultural heritage of Rajasthan. You can also sample exquisite and authentic Rajasthani cuisine at various indoor and outdoor restaurants.

Live dance and music performances through the evenings are one of the major attractions at Chokhi Dhani.

Day 05 – Jaipur

The Breathtaking Amber Fort

The Fabulous Amber Fort And Palace

Amber is situated about 7 miles from Jaipur and was the ancient citadel of the ruling clan of Amber. The Amber Fort (1592) set in picturesque and rugged hills is a fascinating blend of Hindu and Mughal architecture. The forbidding exterior belies an inner paradise with a beautiful fusion of art and architecture. You have the added attraction of an Elephant Back Ride to ascend to the top.

The Famous Bazaars And Markets Of Old Jaipur

Jaipur contains some of the most famous markets in India. All of the bazaars are located within the old walled city area. They are the perfect place to shop for handicrafts, antiques, jewellery, gems, pottery, carpets, textiles, metalwork and leatherware.

Day 06 – Day 13 Beach Stay In Goa

Cansaulim Beach

Goa's Beaches

The best known of India's beach resorts, Goa's renowned beaches continue to attract visitors with a variety of accommodation to suit all budgets. The beaches are all so different from tropical Palolem in the south, the old hippy beaches at Arambol and lovely golden beaches of soft sand girdled with palm trees at Cavelossim and Varca. At Colva and Benaulim the sea, sand and sky blend in a enchanting natural harmony and Calangute is known as the 'Queen Of All Beaches'.
